

AUTOBIZ jobs.ie

Autobizjobs.ie is the new fully interactive jobs and recruitment website dedicated to the motor trade. It is the place for prospective motor trade employers to make a connection with quality motor trade candidates quickly, easily and economically.

The site offers motor trade employers the facility to:

- Post a vacancy on an easy-to-navigate site, that can attract immediate applications.
- Have vacancies circulated to a targeted list of email subscribers with relevant motor trade experience.
- Search a database of candidate skills and experience, including details such as specific areas of expertise and franchise experience.
- Access the employer management section, where you can view and store applications, change job details and quickly upload new vacancies.
- Have all jobs posted on Autobizjobs.ie (registered with Google), also advertised in Autobiz Magazine, with a 5,000+ ABC certified motor trade circulation.

Experience and expertise

Autobizjobs.ie is backed by Autobiz, Ireland's leading monthly motor trade publication. We have a wealth of experience in the automotive sector and are uniquely placed to meet the needs of employers, with a cost effective and professional service, targeted specifically at Ireland's motor trade.

Why choose Autobizjobs.ie?

If you are looking to recruit, there is a confusing array of recruitment and advertising options on offer. Some can cost you financially in terms of high agency fees, while others will cost you in time and convenience, as you sift through multiple applications with no guarantee of finding candidates with the right skills or experience.

Because Autobizjobs.ie is targeted only at the motor trade, we can save your business time and expense.

- A one-stop shop for connecting prospective motor trade employers with candidates that have the right skills and experience.
- Save time on screening inappropriate applications and unnecessary interviews.
- Save time and cost on recruitment administration.
- Cut the cost of multiple adverts, with a full one month listing at an economical price.
- A vacancy listing with no space restrictions. This allows for a more detailed job description without any cost penalty, as you are not paying for media wordage or space.
- Get your job seen in Autobiz, Ireland's leading motor trade magazine, reaching over 5,000 motor trade businesses.
- Use the candidate database search facility, to find people with the right skills and experience for your job. Search by criteria such as job title, areas of expertise and relevant franchise experience.
- Manage the recruitment process quickly and easily in our convenient employer admin area.

Cost effective recruitment

Autobizjobs.ie works on a simple credits system, where one credit equals €1 plus vat. Once you have credits in your account, you can use them to post vacancies, renew jobs and search CV's.

Base prices

To post one vacancy for one month = 149 credits, or €149 (plus vat)

This includes:

- One month posting on autobizjobs.ie with unlimited space for job description.
- Job sent out by email alert to all Autobizjobs.ie subscribers.
- Listing in the next available issue of Autobiz monthly magazine (5,000+ circulation).
- Unlimited job posting changes (through employer logged in admin area).
- Unlimited blind candidate database search (note: credits required to send candidate messages).

To renew a vacancy for a further month = 75 credits, or €75 (plus vat)

This includes all of the above in relation to a job already posted, with renewal for one full month.

Multiple vacancies and multiple month packages:

If you are planning to recruit for more than one vacancy in a month, or you anticipate having several vacancies over the course of a year, then we can offer some attractive block booking discounts. Please call 01-485-3170 for more information, or email your requirements to info@autobizjobs.ie.

Candidate messages:

If you search the candidate database information and find someone who has the right skills and experience for your position, you can send them a message via the website and ask them to apply for the job. Sending a message costs five credits or €5 (plus vat).

If you have a vacancy you can register and upload it through the website at www.autobizjobs.ie.
